Subject: Stavatti update

Hello Valentino,

I have spoken to Brian regarding the status of the Stavatti Loan.

Del Morgan says it has received two brokerage firm response 17 million each
I believe the funding will complete next week

I am including the teaser that was distributed Monday

Del Morgan will not normally give a firm date but I believe we are very close now.

I have asked Stavatti to email you an update you will probably get today.

I will try to call you now

Thank you,

Rudy
